

Mark C. Simmons

Mark Charles Simmons, 33, died Saturday, Sept. 12, 1987 of injuries received in a motorcycle accident.

He was born June 10, 1954 in Ogden to Robert Charles and Anita Jane Sanford Simmons.

He was owner and operator of the Historic Evergreen Manor in Riverton. After having been a chef for many years, he had attained his goal of owning his own restaurant.

At age 13, he was one of the youngest to attain the Eagle Scout award in the nation.

Survivors include his mother, Anita Simmons, father and step-mother, Robert and Meredith Simmons; one brother, two sisters: Stephen R. Simmons, Judith Anne Simmons, Jill Maureen Simmons; one nephew, two nieces; grandmother, Mary J. Sanford, his companion, Joanne Saltas.

Funeral will be Wednesday, 11 a.m., Desert Mortuary, 10055 So. State, Sandy. Friends may call one hour prior to service. Burial Lake Hills Memorial Park.